

Daroth Capital Advisors LLC, a New York-based investment bank, provides a full array of financial advisory services to companies, financial sponsors and institutional investors. The firm works with its clients to identify structure and execute diverse and innovative transactions. Since inception in 2002, Daroth has advised on over $5.0 Billion in transaction values and raised over $700 Million for its clients. Daroth is registered as a broker dealer with the SEC and is a member of the NASD and SIPC. For more information, please visit www.daroth.com.

While Daroth Capital does not currently have any open positions, we are always interested in meeting potential candidates interested in joining a team like ours. Any such potential candidates are encouraged to send a resume with a cover letter to phil@daroth.com.